Mem'ries light the corners of my mind.

Misty watercolor mem'ries of the way we were.

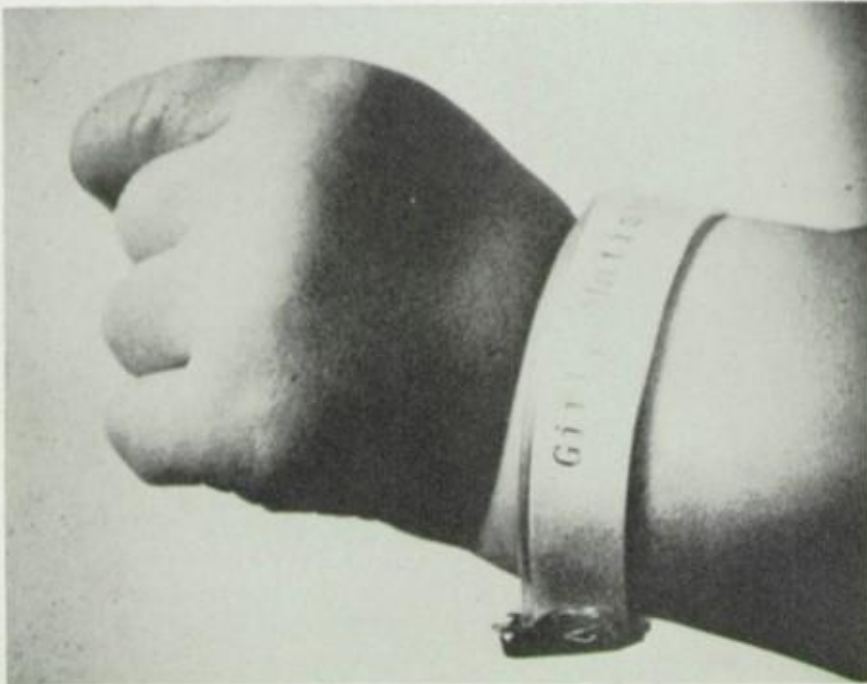

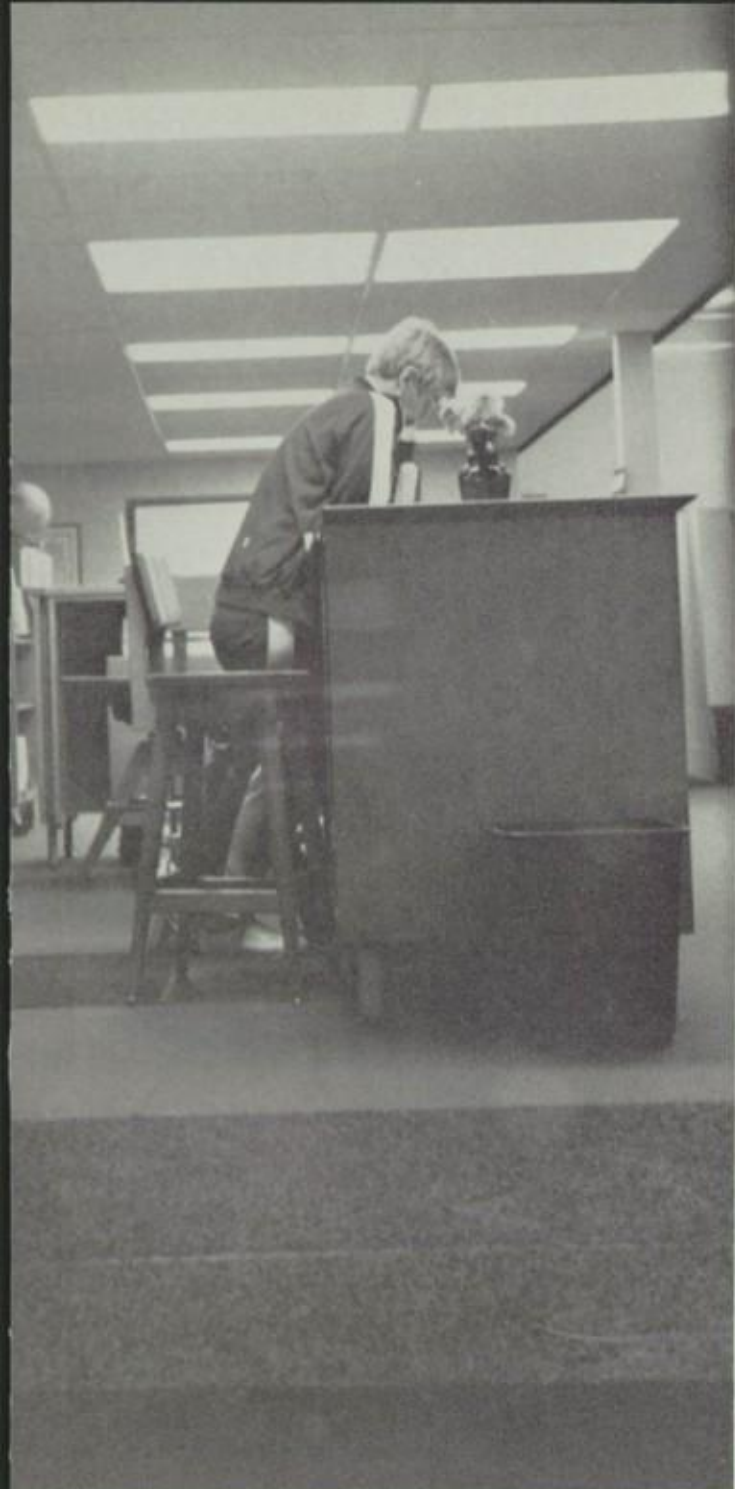

Scattered pictures of the smiles we left behind

Smiles we gave to one another for the way we were.

Can it be that it was all so simple then, or has time rewritten ev'ry line?

If we had the chance to do it all again,
tell me would we? Could we?

New team and coach add to Husky spirit

This year a new team consisting of Freshmen girls coached by Mr. Heinig was added to the volleyball scene. The varsity and junior varsity, coached again for the second year by Sue Reinke, looks better than ever. The squad won the Conference Tournament and prospects look good for the conference title.

Fervor of Spirit Week

Crushed by Clippers

Spirit Week was a great success this year, especially with the addition of "Top 'em, Sock 'em, T-Shirt Day" on which students wore their funniest socks, hats and T-shirts. The week came to a tragic climax with a rainy defeat under the Sturgeon Bay Clippers—a loss of 18-12. "You and Me" was the theme of the Letter Club sponsored dance. King Randy Flesch and Queen Cindy Burg were crowned the 1977 Homecoming Royalty.

1. The showcase was designed by Letter Club. 2. The little girl helps to comfort a Sturgeon Bay cheerleader in the Junior Skits. 3. Honor Society won first prize in float competition. 4. King, Randy Flesch and Queen, Cindy Burg.

Hillbillies strike oil

The Clampetts, a backwoods family of hillbillies, discover oil on their land. Soon after, they decide Beverly Hills is the place for them. Upon arriving at their new estate, they find it doesn't even compare with their cabin in the hills; and folks just ain't very neighborly. So they decide to return home. But the avarous banker, Mr. Drysdale, devises a plan which will make the Clampetts want to stay. While this is happening, the devious Colonel Foxhall and his conniving accomplice Emaline Fetty try unsuccessfully to blackmail Jed Clampett.

Miss Johnston was the Director of the play and Carrie Duwell was Student Director. Lighting and set design were done by Mr. Rybicke and Mr. Simons.

1. Mrs. Drysdale informs Jed there'll be no party at her house. 2. Col. Foxhall finds that flattery gets him everywhere. 3. Jethro thinks Uncle Jed is aimed to steal his sweetie. 4. Emaline's cuckoo camera develops some incriminating evidence against Uncle Jed.

New warm-ups spark team

This year's Huskies had a definite potential for losing, but oddly enough had an excellent season. Finishing in conference play with an 8-5 record, the Huskies tied for fifth with Sheboygan Falls and Lux-Casco. Leading the team this year was Scott Wenzel, MVP, and captain, Dennis Anhalt. Voted most improved were Al Morgen, Tom Wilberscheid, and Mark Schmidt.

Activities

Basic skills emphasized in rehearsals

The New Holstein High School Band, under the direction of Mr. Russell Hoier, meets second hour daily to practice a constant variation of music. At each rehearsal, the band warms up with skill exercises, turns, practice their sight reading techniques, and the remaining time is spent on performing music, whether it be for pep band, festival or concerts.

GAA sells shirts and sweatsuits

This year GAA sold T-shirts and sweatsuits as a money-making project. Also soccer was added to the GAA activities. Along with the sponsoring of the annual Homecoming Dance, GAA also has a Mother-Daughter Day at the end of the year, in which all the activities are open to the mothers and daughters. Ms. Robichaud is the advisor of the club.

Annette Braun visits from Hamburg, Germany

For the first time in six years New Holstein has the privilege of having a foreign student study and learn at New Holstein High School. Annette Braun from Hamburg, Germany is spending her sophomore school year with the John Leibham family, learning the ways and customs of Americans. Although it is her sophomore year, Annette has various classes with junior and senior students, also.

1. Wendy Will, Annette, Shelly Lucas and Alice Merten share ideas in a Sociology discussion. 2. Annette Braun. 3. Annette and her American sister, Carrie Leibham.

Library Club¹ continues to provide help

Library Club is open to any person who is interested in volunteering their time to help keep the library running smoothly. Their jobs consist of checking out books to students, putting books back on shelves, and repairing the books. The advisor of Library Club is Miss Meili. This year Library Club displayed many new books in the showcase during National Book Week November 14-18.

Intramurals' teams compete for fun

Intramurals is an opportunity for many male students to participate in school athletics. Students are allowed to be themselves by choosing and coaching their own teams. Competition is for the fun of it and unlike the other athletic teams, it allows many more participants to display their talents. The program is advised by Mr. Rohrer.

Girls purchase new pompons

The PomPon Girls add spirit to Huskie games and pep assemblies by performing their original routines to music. The girls sent a squad of eight to a workshop in Milwaukee where they performed routines showing their abilities in the areas of originality, the use of props, and speed learning. The girls also bought new red and white PomPons to add to their routines.

AV aids learning ¹

The purpose of the Audio-Visual Department is to aid in the teaching of the various subject areas. Without the help of the audio-visual equipment, the process of learning might be lengthy and "boring" in the eyes of many students. AV is a big help in keeping the interest of the students alive. The people in AV deliver equipment to proper rooms, pick up the equipment, store the equipment properly, and check to see that it runs smoothly. Mr. Feuerstein directs these activities.

Stagecraft class produces excellent sets in fall 3-act

Creative sets were produced by the senior class members for NHHS's Fall 3-Act production. The intricate lighting system gave special effects to the performance. Besides just working on the 3-Act plays, they also create sets for the One-Act class plays, and set up the stage, lights and curtains for speakers or organizations renting the auditorium.

We would like to dedicate this book to a man who has dedicated so much of his time, ideas and learning to his students and fellow teachers. Whether it is in freshmen Science Survey or senior Physics, he shares everything he is as a teacher and a person. He is inspiring to all of us who have the privilege to experience his teaching and friendship. With respect and a special thank you we would like to dedicate this year's Argonaut to Mr. Charles Svetlik.

"The Book of Genesis"

In the beginning there was created the Class of 1978. The class was without form or void. Darkness was yet upon the class and many dampened spirits were hung over the face of the water, these waters being called; bubblers.

Then Mr. Brenner, class advisor, said, "Let us make a selected group of people in the likenesses of many before them and let them have dominion over all the class. Let them be fruitful with ideas and let these ideas multiply." And so it was done. In command was put Carolyn Duwell, and from her position sprang other offices to be held by: Sue Ruppenthal, Michelle Hemauer, and Cynthia Thome.

In these days when no weeds of evil had yet sprung up, a mist of impending problems hung over the class. To prevent a thunderous downpour a council was selected (Anne Ruh, Michele Lucas, Patrick Hess and Greg Mayer).

Then it was said, "Let there be light to brighten the spirits of this darkened class." And so it was done. A heavenly light radiated from the "spirit raisers" of this class. This glow came from Michele Lucas and Mary Ross.

Then it was said, "Let there be a covey from the midst of the school and let this group separate the class into men and women. And from these women let an angel be chosen with charm and beauty to dazzle a court. The angel shall be called "Sweetheart," a position to be held by Catherine Pauly and to be escorted by some fine young man of her choice, namely; David Turba. And so it was done.

And then it was said, "Let there be special lights in the heavens to radiate a light of wisdom and let them come forth in the form of a team to give the class more strength." The team consisted of Mark Dorn, Catherine Pauly, Randolph Flesch, Michele Lucas, and Steven Simons.

And now the whole school looked at this class which had been created and behold, it was good. And evening came and so comes the end of the first book.

"The Book of Chronicles"

And still the ruler was Carolyn Duwell. Carrie was of great strength for she ruled in the days when the upper classmen ruled the younger, but Carrie made no attempt to fight the enemy alone. With her walked an advisor, George Brandenstein and her officers; Sue Ruppenthal, Laurie Haensgen, and Cynthia Thome. And a divine council gave her more support. This council consisted of: Anne Ruh, Michelle Hemauer, Michele Lucas and Greg Mayer. Carrie even without help was very powerful and well-spoken. Problems continuously arose and with the help of a great speaking ability she downed the turmoil and solved all problems. Now the class was beginning to wonder from whence her strength arose. They consulted with their seat of knowledge, of which Carrie was a member this year. Others in the group were Mark Dorn, Michele Lucas, Steven Simons and Catherine Pauly, but still they could not find the source of her power. Then two men were selected to find her secret; one being sent with her to Homecoming and the other to the Sweetheart Hop. These well-respected men were John Dietrich and Mark Ausloos, respectively, but even being her escort for an evening they could not find the source of her power.

Finally, the groups called Cheerleaders and PomPon Girls were asked to uncover her secret. This year they were: Sandra Schuppel, Anne Ruh, Michele Lucas, and Sue Ruppenthal (Sue was replaced by Cynthia Casper our Junior year) for Cheerleaders and Renee Burg, Rene Nagel, Cynthia Reiser, Cynthia Burg and Sandra Konen for Pom Pon Girls, this year as next, but to their despair they could not find her source until a close friend and PomPon Girl, Michelle Hemauer, in consultation, discovered her secret so she believed. It was thought to be her long, flowing red hair. So during the year her hair was cut to reveal a "true" Carolyn Duwell, but to no avail. Carrie was still all powerful. Again she was put up before the school and the whole school was brought down around her with her still as the supreme ruler of this great class.

"The Book of Numbers"

Now it was seen by some that minor wickedness developed over the face of the class. Cloudbursts of problems were about to rain over the class and the divine council, which now consisted of: Michele Lucas, Anne Ruh, Richard Halbach, and Michelle Hemauer, could not reduce the brewing turmoil. But Carolyn Duwell still found favor in the eyes of the class. She walked with Mr. Burton, class advisor, and her three apprentices, Sue Ruppenthal, Laurie Haensgen, and Cynthia Thome.

And then it was said unto Carrie, "It has been determined that there is some evil in the class and so have yourself a room and this is how the room is to be; about 55 cubits in length and 35 cubits in breadth. This room is to be called "cafeteria." And behold, a flood of troubles is descending upon this fine class. But a covenant has been established with you, and you shall come into your cafeteria; you and some chosen people from your class. They shall be brought together under one roof and enjoy themselves in the peace and love, hand in hand. In this room there shall be brought two of every species, known as courts, a male and a female."

So Carrie watches on as all was done. A species of Homecoming was first chosen to enter the cafeteria, two sets of each, a male and a female, they were: Mark Ausloos, Michele Lucas, and Randolph Flesch and Linda Ebertz.

Later the species called Sweethearts was chosen for the cafeteria. They were Lori Dickmann and Scott Wenzel.

Next to be elected was a group of the king of all species. This species being known as Prom. And it had been said, "Take with you seven pairs of this species, male and his escort." And so it was done. Leading the group were to be John Voelker and Jan Brandt, followed by: Scott Wenzel, Michelle Hemauer, Bruce Bartel, Rene Nagel, Mark Ausloos, Michele Lucas, Daniel Boll, Barbara Stephanie Jeffrey Ditter, Cynthia Thome, and Steven Simons and Heather Talmadge.

These events brought love and harmony back to the class. In thanksgiving for the hard work a celebration was held with the theme "Over the Rainbow" to rejoice the destruction of the impending flood of problems. This celebration was dominated by the species called Prom.

And to have the class started off on the right foot, a special group was selected to learn the order of politics so all would run smoothly again. This group was made up of: Gerald Steiner, Bruce Jacobson, Jeffrey Ditter, Catherine Pauly and Linda Ebertz. And also a divine seat of wisdom was established, consisting of: Michele Lucas, Mark Dorn, Steven Simons, Robert Keller, Carolyn Duwell and Richard Halbach.

Then after seeing the class back in order it was promised unto Carrie that a flood of this degree would never descend upon this class again.

"The Book of Exodus"

And then there was selected a new ruler to reign over the class. This new leader had the name of Jeffrey Ditter. Upon entering this final year, Jeff found himself in the midst of a desert of ideas. They were all new and now lifeless, but waiting to flourish if given the proper nourishment.

And then one night a dream appeared unto him in a flame of fire in the midst of his sleep. And the dream said unto him, "I've heard from your class cries of freedom and knowing their sorrow of confinement and needs to seek out new adventures in the world, I am come to delive them from that school and send them into a life that flows with milk and honey. I shall send thee forth so thou mayest bring your people from bondage when your class is ready."

Then Jeff said unto the dream, "I am too slow in thought to do this by myself. There are too many wonderful promises ahead that I should seek them alone."

And so the dream appointed unto Jeff some help in the form of officers and a council. The officers were Lori Dickmann, Laurie Haensgen and Cynthia Thome, with Jeff in the lead. And his divine council consisted of a leader, Michele Lucas, and as assistant, Richard Halbach. Also on this council were; Anne Ruh, Wendy Will, Michelle Hemauer and Gregory Hoerth. And now this class was prepared to battle this final year in school.

And so early in the year Jeff went to the school and asked for freedom from bondage and it was said unto him that they were not yet worthy of freedom into the world and that they must prove themselves worthy to face the challenges ahead.

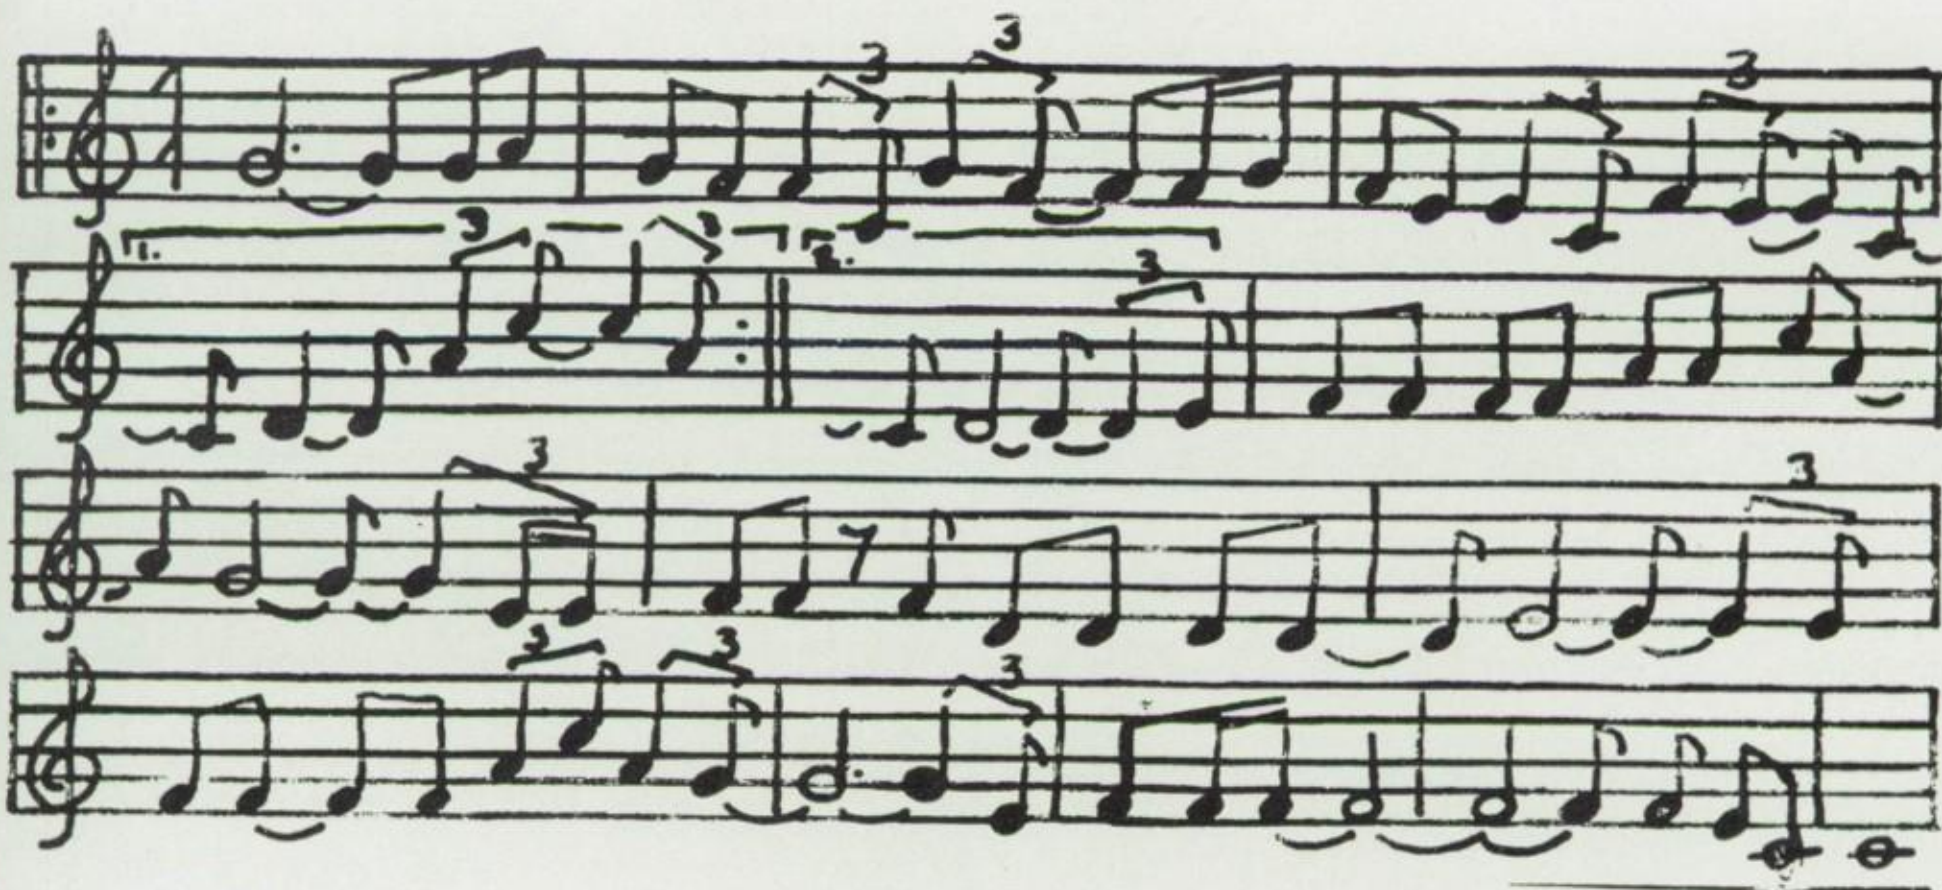

After hearing this Jeff and the class were determined to give themselves their deserved freedom and so throughout the year a series of plagues of wonderful events and people rained unto the school.

First, a fantastic plague of Homecoming fell upon the school, led by Randolph Flesch and Cynthia Burg with Jeffery Ditter, Anne Ruh, Scott Wenzel, and Cynthia Thome. Now the school looked at the class and in their eyes saw power and assured greatness.

Also a plague of PomPon was showered upon the school to offer a spectacular dazzlement. Bringing this on were Renee Burg, Rene Nagel, Cynthia Burg, Cynthia Reiser, Michelle Hemauer and Sandra Koenen. Still the school would not free them from their bondage. So more plagues of proof of worthiness descended on the school; one being a cheerleader (Cynthia Casper), Sweetheart (Anne Ruh) and Academic Team, and now it being the spring of 1978, the class was nearly worthy of total freedom. And finally with the last and most spectacular plague of all (led by class advisor Mr. Ditter) called Skits, they were granted their freedom. And so the date of June 4, was set to end the four years of bondage.

And when that wonderful day arrived Jeff stood peering over the class for the last time, and behold, it was good.

time
to believe my every daydream
reaching in and living my schemes
of life

I wish to know
all the joys and all the sorrows
standing tall I greet tomorrows
my life

Chorus

thanks to the good friends that I care for
to the good times that we've shared forever
and when I've gone
all the mem'ries still will live on reaching out I touch the new dawn
tomorrow

Mem'ries may be beautiful, and yet, what's too painful to remember we simply choose to forget.

So it's the laughter we will remember, whenever we remember the way we were,

The way we were.
